INFORMATIONAL ITEMS

- General Update – Steve Minor discussed how well the Public Budget hearing went on 4/29/14 and was impressed with the way the kids conducted themselves at the meeting. The budget will be adopted on 5/20/14. There will be a morning session and a citizen's corner on 5/20/14 for anyone who would like to speak and was not able to make it to prior meetings.
- Calvert Regional Park Press Release/Conowingo Ribbon Cutting – Delegate Rudolph, members of the Maryland State Police, Lions Club, Exelon, several Parks Board members, County Executive Moore and Al Wein all attended the press release and ribbon cutting. Delegate Rudolph has secured $125,000 toward the Calvert Regional Park for bleachers, restrooms, and scoreboards and he fully supports the park.
- Programs – Cindy Cantor gave an update on the programs being offered through Parks and Recreation. Fliers with program sessions go out twice a year for the Spring/Summer and Fall/Winter sessions.
- Board of Education Policy Update – CCPS is proposing an update to Policy KG – Community Use of Schools. The policy update would determine fees for the 391 school user groups, broken into tiers, for the 11,000+ events held at Cecil County Public Schools throughout the year. A Board of Education meeting will be held on 6/2/14 to discuss policy revisions.
