The greatest gift for us is the time we get to share all of these moments with each of you. You bring something new and different to our days by choosing to join us at the Center. The tears of joy and sadness we have shared just help build the pathway of our journey through this life. All of us are blessed to share in each other's journey. As we get ready for a new year, we want to wish every one of you a happy, healthy, and joyous Christmas and New Year! The Community Wellness Team
