

Vinyl Siding Recycling

On March 2, 2009 the Cecil County Department of Public Works began recycling clean vinyl siding at the Central Landfill located at 758 E. Old Philadelphia Road. The vinyl siding must be clean of wood and debris.

Vinyl siding is accepted from residents and contractors working on projects in Cecil County. There is no charge for vinyl siding that is recycled.

The County receives a per ton fee for the vinyl siding from its recycling vendor.