In lieu of revising the form, the Commission agreed on a process for handling these forms. The forms will be distributed to all commission members for review and determination on whether a conflict of interest exists. If the Commission determines there is no conflict, the Chair will provide an acknowledgement indicating this to the submitter. If the Commission determines that further discussion of the matter is warranted, it will be handled at the next regularly scheduled meeting and the Chair will notify the submitter of this. An acknowledgement/notification will be sent to the submitter within one week of the form being distributed to commission members.
